

Player Licences

Status: Approved January 8th 2023

Players require a Licence to play in BFA-sanctioned events. There are three types of licences, Classes A, B and C. Players are automatically assigned a Class C licence when registering for their first event.

Licences last for one calendar year. If a licence is purchased in the last quarter of the year, it also applies to the following year.

Details of the rights granted by each licence type can be found below:

Class C Licence

Fee: Free

Rights included:

- Local events
- Listing in BFA rankings

Class B Licence

Fee: £5 per calendar year

Rights included:

- All Class C rights
- Regional Championships
- Regional Leagues
- UK Club Championships
- Challenger tournaments

Class A Licence

Fee: £15 per calendar year

Rights included:

- All Class B & C rights
- UK Player Championships
- ITSF events
- Team GB

How to get a licence

To obtain a licence, players must purchase them via their club. Players who are not a member of a club can find a club to join here or register a new club using this form.